

NONINTERVENTION

Meaning: Nonintervention refers to a policy or principle of avoiding involvement in the affairs or conflicts of other nations.

1. The policy of nonintervention has often been debated in the context of international relations.
2. Nonintervention allows nations to focus on their internal issues without external pressures.
3. Many advocates argue that nonintervention promotes sovereignty and respects national self-determination.
4. The doctrine of nonintervention was a key principle in the foreign policy of several historical leaders.
5. Critics of nonintervention claim that it can lead to humanitarian disasters when countries turn a blind eye to crises.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nonintervention>