NONJOINDER

Meaning: Nonjoinder refers to the failure to include a necessary party in a legal action, which can affect the validity of the claims being made.

1. The court ruled that the nonjoinder of the necessary party invalidated the plaintiff's claims.
2. In cases of nonjoinder, the absence of a crucial party can undermine the legal proceedings.
3. The attorney argued that the nonjoinder of the co-defendant was a significant oversight in the case.
4. Nonjoinder can lead to complex legal challenges, especially in multi-party litigation.
5. The judge emphasized the importance of addressing nonjoinder issues before proceeding with the trial.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nonjoinder