

NONJURING

Meaning: Nonjuring refers to individuals, particularly clergy, who refuse to take an oath of allegiance, often resulting in persecution or exclusion from official positions.

1. The nonjuring clergy faced significant persecution during the revolution.
2. In historical contexts, nonjuring refers to those who refused to take an oath of allegiance.
3. Many nonjuring individuals maintained their beliefs despite societal pressures.
4. The book explores the struggles of nonjuring Protestants in the face of political upheaval.
5. Nonjuring factions often formed secret societies to uphold their traditions and beliefs.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nonjuring>