

NONMANUFACTURING

Meaning: Nonmanufacturing refers to sectors of the economy that do not involve the production of goods, focusing instead on services and other activities that contribute to economic growth.

1. The economic report highlighted the growth of nonmanufacturing sectors as a key driver of job creation.
2. Investors are increasingly interested in nonmanufacturing industries, such as technology and services.
3. The nonmanufacturing index showed a significant rise, indicating a robust economy outside of traditional manufacturing.
4. Many workers are transitioning from manufacturing jobs to nonmanufacturing positions in response to automation.
5. Nonmanufacturing companies are often seen as more adaptable to changing market trends compared to their manufacturing counterparts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nonmanufacturing>