

NONNATURAL

Meaning: Nonnatural refers to something that is artificial, unnatural, or not occurring in nature, often characterized by an exaggerated or unrealistic quality.

1. The artist's use of vibrant colors gave the painting a strikingly nonnatural appearance.
2. In the debate over climate change, some critics argued that the model's predictions were based on nonnatural assumptions.
3. Her nonnatural ability to remember every detail of the conversation left everyone in awe.
4. The biologist was concerned about the effects of nonnatural substances on local ecosystems.
5. The play's nonnatural dialogue highlighted the absurdity of the characters' situations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nonnatural>