

NONPRESENTATION

Meaning: Nonpresentation refers to the failure to present or provide something, such as evidence or attendance, in a specific context or situation.

1. The nonpresentation of evidence in the trial raised concerns about the fairness of the proceedings.
2. Her nonpresentation at the conference was unexpected, leaving many participants questioning the reasons behind her absence.
3. The committee decided to address the nonpresentation of crucial data in their final report to ensure transparency.
4. Due to the nonpresentation of required documents, the application for funding was denied.
5. The nonpresentation of the annual financial statement shocked the board members during the meeting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nonpresentation>