

NONPRODUCTION

Meaning: Nonproduction refers to periods or instances when no goods or services are being produced, often resulting in financial losses and inefficiencies.

1. The company faced significant losses due to nonproduction during the strike.
2. Nonproduction hours can lead to increased costs and decreased efficiency in manufacturing.
3. Investing in employee training could help reduce nonproduction time on the assembly line.
4. The report highlighted the correlation between nonproduction periods and decreased morale among workers.
5. Effective management strategies are essential to minimize nonproduction and maximize output.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nonproduction>