

NONRENDITION

Meaning: Nonrendition refers to the practice or principle of not transferring a person to another jurisdiction, particularly in the context of legal and ethical considerations surrounding international law.

1. The concept of nonrendition raises ethical questions in the field of international law.
2. In many debates, the term nonrendition is often misunderstood or misused.
3. Activists argue that nonrendition should be the standard in preventing human rights violations.
4. Nonrendition policies can complicate diplomatic relations between countries.
5. The documentary explored the implications of nonrendition in modern warfare.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nonrendition>