

NONSLAVEHOLDING

Meaning: Non-slaveholding refers to individuals or societies that do not own slaves, often associated with values of freedom and personal rights.

1. The society was predominantly nonslaveholding, emphasizing freedom and personal rights for all its citizens.
2. His research focused on the political dynamics of nonslaveholding states during the Civil War era.
3. The nonslaveholding population rallied for abolition, believing in equality and justice for all.
4. In the debate over economic systems, nonslaveholding regions often highlighted their moral superiority.
5. The history of nonslaveholding communities reveals a diverse tapestry of resistance and reform.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nonslaveholding>