

NONSUBMISSIVE

Meaning: NONSUBMISSIVE: refusing to submit or yield to authority or control; assertively independent.

1. Her nonsubmissive attitude in the meeting surprised everyone, as she confidently voiced her dissent.
2. The character in the novel was defined by her nonsubmissive nature, challenging societal norms at every turn.
3. In a world that often expects compliance, being nonsubmissive can be both a strength and a risk.
4. He admired her nonsubmissive spirit, knowing it would help her thrive in a competitive environment.
5. Their nonsubmissive behavior during the protest highlighted the urgency of their demands for change.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nonsubmissive>