

NONVERNACULAR

Meaning: Nonvernacular refers to a style of language or speech that is formal, literary, or not characteristic of everyday spoken language.

1. The author chose a nonvernacular style to elevate the seriousness of the subject matter.
2. In the linguistics class, we explored how nonvernacular speech influences regional dialects.
3. His poetry often incorporates nonvernacular elements that challenge conventional language use.
4. The nonvernacular terms used in the text required additional explanation for the audience.
5. She preferred writing in a nonvernacular tone to convey a sense of formality in her essays.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nonvernacular>