

NOON-FLOWER

Meaning: Noon-flower refers to a type of flowering plant that blooms during midday, characterized by vibrant colors and delicate petals.

1. The garden was alive with color, especially the vibrant noon-flowers that bloomed under the midday sun.
2. She admired the delicate petals of the noon-flower, which seemed to glow with a golden hue.
3. As the sun reached its peak, the noon-flowers unfurled, attracting butterflies and bees alike.
4. In many cultures, the noon-flower symbolizes joy and beauty, often featured in art and literature.
5. After a brief rain, the noon-flowers looked refreshed, their bright colors contrasting against the damp earth.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/noon-flower>