

NOONSHUN

Meaning: Noonsun: the bright, warm sunlight that occurs around midday.

1. The artist's latest work depicts a serene scene bathed in the golden light of noonsun.
2. During our hike, we paused to enjoy a picnic under the noonsun, feeling its warmth on our skin.
3. As the clock struck noon, the noonsun cast long shadows across the vibrant landscape.
4. Children played joyfully in the park, their laughter echoing under the brilliant noonsun.
5. The photographer captured the essence of summer with a stunning image of a field shimmering in the noonsun.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/noonshun>