

NORMALIZATION

Meaning: Normalization is the process of adjusting and standardizing data or reports to ensure consistency and comparability for analysis.

1. Normalization is a crucial step in data preprocessing to ensure consistent results in statistical analysis.
2. The normalization of the financial reports allowed for easier comparisons across different fiscal years.
3. In psychology, normalization can refer to the process of making certain behaviors acceptable within a given context.
4. The team focused on the normalization of the dataset to eliminate any biases that could affect the outcome of their research.
5. After the normalization process, the students reported feeling more comfortable with their academic performance.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/normalization>