

NOTCHING

Meaning: Notching refers to the act of making a small cut or indentation in a material to ensure a precise fit or to improve a skill incrementally.

1. The carpenter spent the afternoon notching the wooden beams for a perfect fit.
2. In the art of storytelling, she was notching up her skills with every new project.
3. Notching the belt was a sign that he was committed to his fitness goals.
4. The athlete was notching impressive times on the track this season.
5. After notching several awards, the author gained recognition in the literary community.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/notching>