

NOVELIST

Meaning: A novelist is a writer who creates long fictional narratives, typically in the form of books, often exploring complex themes and characters.

1. The novelist spent years researching historical events to accurately depict the era in her latest book.
2. After winning the prestigious award, the novelist's work gained international acclaim and a dedicated readership.
3. He always dreamed of becoming a novelist, penning short stories in his notebook during long commutes.
4. The novelist's unique voice and compelling characters captivated audiences around the world.
5. In her spare time, the retired professor took up writing, aspiring to become a successful novelist.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/novelist>