

NOVUM

Meaning: Novum: a new or novel idea, concept, or development that represents a significant change or innovation in a particular field.

1. The introduction of the electric car was a true novum in the automotive industry.
2. In her research, she proposed a novum that challenged traditional theories of economics.
3. The artist's latest exhibit showcased a novum in the realm of digital art.
4. His novel presented a novum that redefined the boundaries of science fiction.
5. The organization's approach to sustainability represented a significant novum in environmental policy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/novum>