NOY

Meaning: Noy is an expression of disapproval or negation, often used to indicate dissatisfaction or rejection.

1. Noy is a term often used in some cultures to express disapproval or negation.
2. The artist's latest piece was a resounding noy among critics who found it lacking depth.
3. Despite his initial enthusiasm, he ultimately had to say noy to the proposal.
4. In the debate, her firm noy resonated with many who shared her concerns.
5. When asked if he would change his mind, his response was a clear noy without hesitation.
6. The term 'noy' is often used in regional dialects to express surprise or disbelief.
7. In the quaint village, the children would often shout 'noy' whenever they spotted a rare bird.
8. During the festival, the old man exclaimed 'noy' upon seeing the dazzling fireworks.
9. As she opened the mysterious box, her friend couldn't help but gasp, 'Noy, what's inside?'
10. The unexpected turn of events made everyone in the room say 'noy' in unison.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/noy