NOYOUS

Meaning: Noxious: harmful, poisonous, or very unpleasant, often causing damage or adverse effects.

1. The artist's latest work was noxious in its themes, provoking a strong reaction from critics and fans alike.

2. After the storm, the once vibrant garden was now filled with noxious weeds that choked out the flowers.

3. The factory's emissions were deemed noxious, leading to protests from environmental activists in the area.

4. Even a small amount of the noxious substance can cause serious health issues if inhaled or ingested.

5. It was a noxious atmosphere at the party, with hostility and tension brewing among the guests.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/noyous