

NUCLEATED

Meaning: NUCLEATED: possessing a nucleus, particularly referring to cells that contain a distinct, membrane-bound structure that houses genetic material.

1. The research focused on the behavior of nucleated cells in the presence of various environmental stressors.
2. In the laboratory, they observed how nucleated red blood cells respond to changes in oxygen levels.
3. The nucleated structure of the virus allows it to replicate efficiently within host cells.
4. In marine biology, nucleated eggs are crucial for the development of certain fish species.
5. The team used nucleated cultures to study the effects of medication on cell growth.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nucleated>