

NULLIFICATION

Meaning: Nullification is the act of declaring a law or policy void or invalid, often in a legal or political context.

1. The nullification of the outdated law was celebrated by many as a step toward progress.
2. In a historic decision, the court upheld the nullification of the controversial policy.
3. Activists argued that the nullification of the treaty would have severe consequences for international relations.
4. The concept of nullification has been a topic of heated debate among legal scholars.
5. She sought nullification of the contract, claiming it was signed under duress.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nullification>