

NULLIFY

Meaning: Nullify: to make legally invalid or void; to cancel or invalidate something.

1. The court decided to nullify the previous ruling due to procedural errors.
2. Efforts to nullify the controversial law were met with strong opposition from lawmakers.
3. She hoped to nullify the contract after discovering a significant breach of terms.
4. The new evidence presented in the trial could potentially nullify the defendant's alibi.
5. Activists worked tirelessly to nullify the proposed measures that threatened environmental protections.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nullify>