NUNCUPATORY

Meaning: NUNCUPATORY refers to a type of will that is declared orally, rather than written, to express a person's final wishes.

1. The nuncupatory will is a legal document that expresses a person's final wishes verbally rather than in writing.

2. In some jurisdictions, nuncupatory wills can be accepted under specific circumstances, especially when witnesses are present.

3. She felt relieved knowing that her nuncupatory statements had been recorded to validate her intentions.

4. The judge carefully examined the nuncupatory declaration to determine its authenticity and relevance in the case.

5. Despite the unusual nature of a nuncupatory will, it effectively conveyed his desires to his family during his final moments.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nuncupatory