

NUNDINATION

Meaning: NUNDINATION refers to a sudden decline or collapse of a market or economic activity, resulting in significant disruption and distress for those involved.

1. The sudden nundination of the once-thriving marketplace left many vendors in despair.
2. Experts gathered to discuss the implications of nundination on local economies and community structures.
3. As the nundination continued, residents began to adapt their lifestyles to the new reality.
4. The artist's work poignantly captured the essence of nundination and its effects on society.
5. In literature, nundination often symbolizes a deeper existential crisis within the characters.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nundination>