

NURL

Meaning: Nurl (verb): To create a textured finish or pattern by manipulating the edges or surface of an object, often for artistic or presentation purposes.

1. The artist decided to nurl the edges of the canvas to give it a unique texture.
2. During the meeting, she used a nurl technique to make her presentation more engaging.
3. He was fascinated by how a simple nurl could transform the appearance of the sculpture.
4. The designer explained how adding a nurl would enhance the overall aesthetics of the product.
5. As they practiced, they learned to nurl their movements for a more synchronized performance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nurl>