

NURSING

Meaning: Nursing is the profession or practice of providing care for the sick or injured, involving both compassion and medical knowledge.

1. Nursing requires both compassion and a strong foundation in medical knowledge.
2. She decided to pursue nursing after volunteering at a local hospital.
3. The nursing staff worked tirelessly to ensure each patient received personalized care.
4. Advancements in technology are continually changing the landscape of nursing education.
5. Nursing is often described as both a science and an art, blending technical skills with emotional intelligence.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nursing>