

NUTHOOK

Meaning: Nuthook: a specialized climbing tool used to secure ropes or anchors to rock surfaces for safety during ascents.

1. The climber secured the rope with a sturdy nuthook, ensuring safety on the steep ascent.
2. During the expedition, the team relied on the nuthook to anchor themselves on the rocky terrain.
3. To improve his technique, he practiced using the nuthook for various placements in different types of rock.
4. She explained the importance of a reliable nuthook in preventing falls during challenging climbs.
5. As they reached the summit, they celebrated their successful use of the nuthook in navigating tricky sections.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nuthook>