

NUZZLE

Meaning: To nuzzle means to gently push or rub one's nose or face against someone or something, often as a sign of affection or comfort.

1. The cat would nuzzle against my leg every time I sat down on the couch.
2. After a long day, she found comfort in nuzzling her head into his shoulder.
3. The puppy nuzzled the blanket, searching for a cozy spot to settle down.
4. He loved to nuzzle her cheek with his nose, showing affection in the sweetest way.
5. As the rain began to fall, they nuzzled closer together under the umbrella.
6. The cat would nuzzle against my leg every morning, begging for attention.
7. As the sun set, the children nuzzled into their blankets, ready for bedtime stories.
8. She felt a wave of affection as her dog nuzzled his nose into her hand.
9. In a moment of tenderness, he nuzzled her cheek, conveying his love without words.
10. The baby nuzzled into her mother's shoulder, finding comfort and warmth.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/nuzzle>