

OBDORMITION

Meaning: Obdormition refers to the temporary numbness or tingling sensation in a limb due to pressure on the nerves, often experienced after prolonged awkward positioning.

1. The patient experienced obdormition in their arm after sleeping in an awkward position.
2. During the lecture, he noticed a sense of obdormition creeping into his legs from sitting too long.
3. After the long hike, she felt the unmistakable signs of obdormition in her feet.
4. The doctor explained that obdormition is often a temporary condition caused by pressure on the nerves.
5. As I relaxed on the couch, I succumbed to obdormition, my limbs feeling numb and heavy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/obdormition>