

OBFIRMATION

Meaning: Obfirmation refers to the process of affirming or confirming a concept or belief, often leading to a deeper understanding or validation of reality, particularly in scientific inquiry.

1. The concept of obfirmation can often lead to a deeper understanding of reality.
2. In his lecture, he emphasized the importance of obfirmation in the scientific method.
3. The philosopher argued that obfirmation is essential for building a coherent worldview.
4. Through obfirmation, one can solidify their beliefs against contrary evidence.
5. She found that obfirmation helped her navigate complex moral dilemmas more effectively.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/obfirmation>