

OBJECTION

Meaning: Objection: a formal expression of disapproval or disagreement, especially in a legal context or regarding a proposed decision.

1. The attorney raised a strong objection to the witness's testimony.
2. Despite her initial hesitation, she finally voiced her objection to the proposed policy change.
3. The judge overruled the defendant's objection, allowing the evidence to be presented.
4. His loud objection caught the attention of the entire courtroom, silencing the ongoing discussions.
5. After hearing the arguments, the committee dismissed the objection and moved forward with the vote.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/objection>