

OBJECTOR

Meaning: OBJECTOR: a person who expresses opposition or disagreement, especially in a formal context.

1. The objector raised concerns about the ethical implications of the proposed project.
2. In the heated debate, the objector passionately defended his stance against the new policy.
3. As an objector to the war, she organized peaceful protests to voice her opposition.
4. The court considered the arguments presented by the objector before making its ruling.
5. Despite being an objector, he was willing to engage in dialogue to find common ground.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/objector>