

OBLATIONER

Meaning: Oblationer: a person who offers a gift or sacrifice, typically in a religious or ceremonial context.

1. The oblationer presented a beautifully crafted offering at the temple ceremony.
2. As an oblationer, she took great care in selecting the finest ingredients for her ritual.
3. During the festival, each oblationer took turns expressing their gratitude through symbolic gifts.
4. The community honored the oblationer for their dedication to preserving traditional practices.
5. In ancient times, being an oblationer was considered a revered and important role within the society.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/oblationer>