

OBLIGATORILY

Meaning: Obligatorily: in a manner that is required or mandatory.

1. The participants must obligatorily submit their reports by the end of the week.
2. In this course, attendance is obligatorial, ensuring everyone engages in the discussions.
3. Employees are obligatorily required to complete safety training before starting their jobs.
4. The new policy obligatorily enforces stricter guidelines to improve workplace safety.
5. Students are obligatorily assessed at the end of each semester to track their progress.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/obligatorily>