

OBLITERATION

Meaning: Obliteration refers to the act of completely destroying or erasing something, rendering it nonexistent or unrecognizable.

1. The obliteration of historical landmarks during the war left the city unrecognizable.
2. Her memories of that summer were gradually fading, overshadowed by the obliteration of time.
3. Scientists are concerned about the obliteration of certain species due to climate change.
4. The artist's work often explores themes of obliteration and rebirth in nature.
5. After the storm, the landscape was marked by the obliteration of trees and structures alike.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/obliteration>