

OBLOCUTOR

Meaning: Oblocutor: a person who questions or interrogates, often in a critical or challenging manner.

1. The oblocutor skillfully questioned the politician, exposing inconsistencies in his statements.
2. During the debate, the oblocutor held the candidates accountable for their past actions.
3. An effective oblocutor can uncover the truth by navigating complex conversations.
4. The oblocutor's sharp wit kept the audience engaged while addressing difficult topics.
5. In her role as an oblocutor, she had to balance challenging questions with respect for her guests.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/oblocutor>