

OBREPTION

Meaning: Obreption refers to the act of obtaining something, such as a contract, through deceit or the concealment of important information.

1. The contract was deemed void due to obreption, as the buyer had concealed critical information.
2. In legal disputes, obreption can undermine the validity of agreements made under false pretenses.
3. The judge ruled in favor of the plaintiff, citing obreption as a key factor in the misleading negotiations.
4. Obreption often occurs when one party intentionally misrepresents facts to gain an unfair advantage.
5. Understanding the concept of obreption is crucial for anyone involved in contractual law.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/obreption>