

OBSCURATION

Meaning: Obscuration refers to the act of making something unclear or difficult to perceive, often due to obstruction or confusion.

1. The obscuration of the stars by the thick clouds made it impossible to stargaze that night.
2. His explanation was filled with obscuration, leaving everyone more confused than informed.
3. The film's use of shadows and light created a sense of obscuration that added to its suspenseful atmosphere.
4. To improve clarity, she suggested removing any obscuration in the data presentation.
5. The obscuration of the truth can lead to misunderstandings and conflict among friends.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/obscuration>