

OBSTRUCTER

Meaning: Obstracter: a person who deliberately impedes or hinders the progress of justice or an investigation.

1. The obstracter of justice was finally brought to trial after years of evasion.
2. Her deliberate actions made her an obstracter of the investigation, hindering the truth from emerging.
3. The road construction served as an obstracter to the usual flow of traffic, causing significant delays.
4. As an obstracter of communication, he often misinterpreted messages, leading to misunderstandings.
5. The obstracter within the organization consistently undermined efforts to improve team collaboration.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/obstracter>