

OBSTRUCTIONISM

Meaning: Obstructionism is the deliberate act of delaying or hindering progress, especially in a legislative or organizational context.

1. Obstructionism in the Senate has stalled important legislation for months.
2. The company's tactics of obstructionism prevented the merger from moving forward.
3. Critics accuse the political party of engaging in obstructionism to undermine the administration's agenda.
4. Obstructionism can be detrimental to progress, especially in times of crisis.
5. Many believe that obstructionism only deepens the divide between opposing political factions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/obstructionism>