

OBSTRUENT

Meaning: Obstruent refers to a type of sound or noise characterized by a significant blockage of airflow, often resulting in disruptive or harsh qualities.

1. The obstruent noise from the construction site made it difficult to concentrate on my work.
2. In linguistics, obstruent sounds are characterized by a significant blockage of airflow.
3. The teacher emphasized the importance of distinguishing between obstruents and sonorants in phonetics.
4. During the debate, his obstruent behavior prevented any constructive dialogue from taking place.
5. The obstruent nature of the traffic jam caused a ripple effect on the entire public transport system.
6. The obstruent sounds in the language added a unique rhythm to the spoken words.
7. In phonetics, obstruent consonants are characterized by a significant obstruction of airflow.
8. Her speech was filled with obstruent sounds that made her pronunciation stand out.
9. The classification of obstruent and sonorant phonemes is crucial for understanding linguistic patterns.
10. Teachers often emphasize the importance of mastering obstruent articulation for clear communication.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/obstruent>