

OBTRUNCATION

Meaning: Obtruncation refers to the act of cutting off or removing significant portions of something, often resulting in incomplete or compromised outcomes.

1. The obtruncation of the project timeline led to unforeseen complications.
2. In her analysis, she noted the obtruncation of essential data from the final report.
3. The artist's work was criticized for the obtruncation of cultural elements that were vital to the narrative.
4. Obtruncation can significantly alter the intended meaning of a text or speech.
5. During the meeting, the obtruncation of his arguments left many key points unaddressed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/obtruncation>