

OCCUPIER

Meaning: OCCUPIER: A person or entity that resides in or uses a specific space or property.

1. The occupier of the apartment was responsible for maintaining the common areas.
2. As the new occupier of the office space, she had to familiarize herself with the building's policies.
3. The landlord had received complaints about the previous occupier's noise levels.
4. In legal terms, the occupier has certain rights and responsibilities under the lease agreement.
5. The occupier was given a notice to vacate due to a breach of the rental contract.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/occupier>