

ODONTOPHOROUS

Meaning: Odontophorous refers to organisms that have a structure for bearing teeth, particularly in relation to mollusks with a radula used for feeding.

1. The term 'odontophorous' refers to organisms that possess a structure for bearing teeth.
2. Some mollusks are classified as odontophorous due to their unique radula for feeding.
3. Researchers are studying odontophorous species to understand their evolutionary adaptations.
4. The odontophorous features of certain marine animals provide insight into their dietary habits.
5. In paleontology, identifying odontophorous fossils can reveal information about ancient ecosystems.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/odontophorous>