

OFFEND

Meaning: To offend means to cause someone to feel upset, hurt, or insulted by one's words or actions.

1. His comments were meant to be humorous, but they ended up offending many people in the audience.
2. She was careful with her words, knowing that a single misstep could offend her colleagues.
3. It's easy to offend someone unintentionally, especially when discussing sensitive topics.
4. He didn't realize that his joke could offend anyone until he saw the shocked faces around him.
5. To avoid offending the guests, the host made sure to cater to everyone's dietary restrictions.
6. I didn't mean to offend you with my comment about your new haircut.
7. Her choice of words seemed to offend the audience during the presentation.
8. He felt it was important to apologize after realizing he had offended his friend.
9. The joke was meant to be light-hearted, but it ended up offending several people.
10. It's easy to offend someone if you're not careful about cultural differences.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/offend>