

OFFER

Meaning: OFFER: To present or propose something, such as a discount or opportunity, for acceptance or consideration.

1. The company decided to offer a generous discount to attract new customers.
2. She received an unexpected offer for a job that aligned perfectly with her career goals.
3. During the meeting, he made a compelling offer that was hard to refuse.
4. They will offer free workshops to help the community learn new skills.
5. The restaurant is known for its unique offer of a five-course tasting menu every weekend.
6. She decided to accept the job offer after careful consideration.
7. The restaurant has a special offer on appetizers every Tuesday evening.
8. His generous offer to help her study for the exam was greatly appreciated.
9. The company will offer training programs to enhance employee skills.
10. During the meeting, he made an offer that could potentially change the project's direction.
11. The university decided to offer scholarships to outstanding students.
12. She received a generous job offer from a prestigious company.
13. During the sale, the store will offer significant discounts on all merchandise.
14. He made an offer to help her with the project over the weekend.
15. The restaurant is known to offer a diverse menu that caters to all tastes.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/offer>