

OFFERER

Meaning: OFFERER: A person or entity that presents or proposes something, typically in a context of negotiation or transaction.

1. The offerer presented a compelling proposal that caught everyone's attention.
2. In a competitive market, the offerer's ability to negotiate terms can make a significant difference.
3. Many companies rely on an offerer's reputation to gauge the quality of their services.
4. When considering a purchase, it's essential to evaluate the credibility of the offerer.
5. The offerer's detailed explanation helped clarify the terms of the contract for all parties involved.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/offerer>