

OFFICEHOLDER

Meaning: An officeholder is a person who holds a position of authority or responsibility in a government or organization.

1. An officeholder must adhere to the ethical standards set by their governing body.
2. The community held the officeholder accountable for their recent policy decisions.
3. Many citizens were eager to meet the new officeholder to discuss local issues.
4. An experienced officeholder can navigate complex political landscapes effectively.
5. The officeholder's commitment to transparency won the trust of the electorate.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/officeholder>