

ONOMATOPOETIC

Meaning: Onomatopoeic refers to a word that phonetically imitates, resembles, or suggests the sound it describes.

1. The word "buzz" is an excellent example of an onomatopoeic term that mimics the sound made by bees.
2. Children often enjoy reading poems filled with onomatopoeic words that capture the sounds of nature.
3. In literature, onomatopoeic expressions can enhance imagery and make descriptions more vivid.
4. The sound of the rain tapping against the window is an onomatopoeic representation of a peaceful evening.
5. Writers frequently use onomatopoeic language to create a more immersive experience for their readers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/onomatopoeic>