

OPAQUE

Meaning: Opaque: not allowing light to pass through; not clear or difficult to understand.

1. The glass was so opaque that no light could pass through it.
2. Her explanation was opaque, leaving everyone more confused than before.
3. The artist preferred to use opaque colors to give her paintings a rich depth.
4. In the dim light, the once-transparent container appeared almost completely opaque.
5. The lawyer's arguments were deliberately opaque, obscuring the truth from the jury.
6. The glass was so dirty that it appeared completely opaque.
7. Her intentions were opaque, leaving everyone confused about her true motives.
8. The artist chose an opaque paint to ensure the colors would not be diluted.
9. Despite the fog, the lighthouse's light managed to penetrate the otherwise opaque night.
10. The report was filled with opaque language that made it difficult for the public to understand.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/opaque>